ELECTRIC LADYLAND

➔ A staple in Costa Mesa's effervescent bar scene, Mesa serves up a refreshing roster enabling spirit lovers of all persuasions to experiment with inventive drinks. Bar Captain Ryan Crabtree's spotlight on seasonal strawberries is a summertime must. He draws on the structural lift of Hendrick's Gin, the fresh strawberry, finishing with a splash of hedonistic alchemy from elderflower in perfect proportion.

BRIAR PATCH

➔ While Rebel Republic Social House veers staunchly towards dark spirits with a wall devoted to bourbon, single malts, whiskey and ryes, the Briar Patch is a pale, shimmering bouquet of light in a glass. The Bulgarian rose and cucumber notes in Hendrick's Gin marries beautifully with housemade blueberry shrub, lavender simple syrup and lemon juice. Earthy and ethereal, think granny's gin cocktail with an herbaceous twist.

DIRTY PROGRAM MARTINI

➔ The Noble Experiment's Dirty Program Martini brings on the brine for those in the mood for a mouth puckering trip. Think vodka layered with savory Fino Sherry, stirred with a housemade blend of distinct brines and a hot pepper tincture. Certainly, one to spark conviviality and conversation, this take on the speakeasy classic takes dirty out of the olive jar and into the light.

BLOOD ORANGE MARGATINI

An overture to the influence of Instagram, the Blood Orange Margatini at Hotel Paseo's AC3 is primed to fire up your feed, no filter required. Muddled citrus is shaken with Milagro Reposado Tequila, Cointreau, fresh lime juice, simple syrup and topped with a float of blood orange-flavored San Pellegrino. The bold crimson rimmed by rock salt makes for a striking shot. ■
